ST. LOUIS WINS. ALLIES STOPPED!

97 DEGREES OF HEAT MARKED.

New York Swept by an Intense Hot Wave Which Will Last for Several Days.

The present hot spell will remain with us for some time, and New Yorkers who began within the last few days to unpack their fall overcoats will do well to put them back again.

A fierce heat wave is coming. H. E. Williams, acting chief of the local weather bureau, noted the high-vaunting spurt of the thermometer to-day and announced that it would continue to perform the same act for several days.

At 8 o'clock this morning it was 72, which was pleasant. But in the next hour it grew a degree cooler. And at 8 o'clock it was still another degree lower. But the mercury must have been merely crouching a little, like a leaper, so as to get a fine upward impetus. And after 8 o'clock it began its work.

In two hours the mercury had mounted eight degrees. At 11 o'clock it was 80; at 12 o'clock, 83; at 1 P. M., 86, and at 2 o'clock 89.

The silver thread had gone up steadily for six hours, making during that time nineteen degrees. It was many degrees hotter on the sidewalks, where the heat was radiated to persons walking along the streets.

Fierce Attack by Them at Peitsang Results in Loss of 1,200 Killed or Wounded.

Chinese Forced to Retreat After Battle Lasting Seven and a Half Hours—Every Inch Contested.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—While Gen. Chaffee's report of the battle of Peitsang is not yet to hand there are rumors here that the advance of the allies has been brought to a standstill.

There is no doubt a victory was gained and that the Chinese are in retreat, but the heavy losses of the allies and lack of transport will prevent a resumption of the forward movement for some days.

In its first engagement with the Chinese on the way to Peking the allied army of 16,000 men has lost 1,200 killed and wounded—7½ per cent. of the total force.

The battle was fought at Peitsang, only eight miles north of Tientsin, on Sunday, lasted from 3 A. M. to 10.30, or seven and a half hours, and resulted in a victory, as the Chinese were forced to retreat. But the War officials here are dazed by the splendid marksmanship of the Chinese.

The following are the cablegrams from Commander Taussig, U. S. N., and Admiral Remy, received at the Navy Department to-day from Chefoo, dated Aug. 6:

"British Fame reports, unofficial, engagement at Peitsang Sunday morning, 3 to 10.30. Allied lost, killed and wounded, 1,200, chiefly Russians and Japanese. Chinese retreating."

Cablegram No. 2.—"Unofficial report believed reliable. About 16,000 allies heavily engaged Chinese at Peitsang daylight of the 5th."

The Chinese army is believed to have been commanded by Gen. Ma, who at last reports had 10,000 well-drilled troops at Peitsang and was getting reinforcements from Peking.

WE HAD 2,000 MEN IN BATTLE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—The War Department believes that the American troops engaged at Peitsang were the Ninth Infantry under Lieut.-Col. Cooke, the Fourteenth Infantry under Col. Daggett, 700 marines under Major Waller and possibly the Reilly battery of artillery.

It is unknown whether the Sixth Cavalry has reached the front. Col. Sumner will command the regiment when he reaches China, but it is not known whether Gen. Chaffee commanded in person at Peitsang. It is expected details will come later in an official report from Gen. Chaffee.

EVERY INCH OF ROAD CONTESTED.

LONDON, Aug. 6.—Prince Tuan, the leader of the Boxers, has issued proclamations to his army ordering every foot of the road from Tientsin to Peking to be disputed with the allies.

All the Chinese imperial troops have been paid in full, and troops, money and supplies are going to Peking from the southern provinces. A despatch received at the War

CHINESE ENVOY TO GO?

London, Aug. 6.—It is reported here that the Chinese Minister and his Embassy staff have packed up their effects and are ready to leave London at a moment's notice.

FILIPINO FOR MCKINLEY.

Raymond Lalla, Educated at Oxford, Wants to Take the Stump.

Raymond Lalla, the Filipino, who was educated at Oxford University, called to see Senator Hanna at Republican Headquarters this afternoon. Mr. Lalla wants to go on a stump tour for McKinley.

"While I am in favor of giving my people their independence ultimately," Mr. Lalla told Senator Hanna, "I think that it is quite too early yet. I am in favor of this Government retaining the islands until my people are instructed in the art of governing themselves."

BOXER FACTION AGAIN RULES AT PEKING.

LONDON, Aug. 6.—The anti-foreign party again has the upper hand at Peking, and there is added danger for the Envoys besieged there.

According to reports emerging from Li Hung Chang's lodgings at Shanghai his baggage is packed preparatory to his departure for Peking, but he has applied to the Throne for twenty days' sick leave.

A "new" agency despatch from Shanghai dated 4 day (Aug. 6) says it is rumored that the powerful Viceroy Yuan Shi Kai, Governor of Shan-tung, who disapproved of Prince Tuan, has been killed.

FOREIGN CONSULS QUIT CENTRAL CHINA CITIES.

PARIS, Aug. 6.—The French Consul at Chungking telegraphs under date of Aug. 3 that the situation is becoming more serious on the Upper Yangtze-Kiang.

HANNA READY FOR THE ROAD

Senator Convinced He Ought to Stump for McKinley.

Mark Hanna is going to stump for McKinley and Roosevelt.

Perry S. Heath, the ex-Assistant Postmaster-General, who resigned his office at Hanna's request to take charge of the literary bureau of the Republican Campaign Committee, convinced Chairman Hanna that it was his duty to go into the highways and byways and exit McKinley.

"I spent several hours this morning," Mr. Heath said to an Evening World reporter this afternoon, "trying to convince Senator Hanna it would be a good thing for the national ticket if he took the stump. I think I succeeded in convincing him, for he will probably do so."

Mr. Heath said he and Senator Hanna would arrange the latter's itinerary in a few days.

Senator Hanna, as his friends know, is a "fine speaker," Mr. Heath continued, "and before the campaign is over, this will be patent. He can make the fur fly where he wants to."

Mr. Heath said that he thought from 10 to 15 per cent. of the Populists would vote for McKinley this year. The grain States, he thought, were uncertain.

JUMPED HER BAIL TWICE.

Woman Accused of Swindling
Photographer Mollie Burns
Arrested in Jail.

Elizabeth Fitzgerald, thirty-four years old, who claims to be a housekeeper of 137 East One Hundred and Twenty-third street, but whom the police say is a confidence woman, was arraigned in Part 1 of General Sessions this morning on a charge of extortion. The case in which the woman was concerned evoked somewhat of a sensation at the time.

The complainant is Mollie E. Burns, a stenographer, of 6 Greenwich avenue. The Fitzgerald woman was indicted June 27, 1900, on complaint of the Burns girl. She charged that the prisoner had extorted $250 from her between April 4 and May 16, 1900. The specific charge was the extortion of $250.

VICTORIA'S HATE FOR ASSASSINS.

Aged Queen Denounces Murder of Humbert in

LONDON, Aug. 6.—The reply of Queen Victoria to the address of Parliament to the Throne with reference to the assassination of King Humbert of Italy thanks Parliament for the address and says:

BRESCI, IN PASSION, PUT IN STRAIT JACKET.

MILAN, Aug. 6.—Bresci, the assassin of King Humbert, has abandoned the attitude of calm which he had assumed since the murder was committed and has been giving way to fits of passion.

This has necessitated placing him in a strait-jacket for ten hours daily.

GENEVA, SWITZERLAND, Aug. 6.—When the news of the assassination of King Humbert of Italy was announced to King Leopold of Belgium, the Italian Anarchist who stabbed and killed the Emperor of Austria, he manifested great joy, saying there was no doubt that before long all the sovereigns would undergo the same fate, commencing with the new King of Italy.

Leopold, who is undergoing a sentence of imprisonment for life, refused to answer any questions on the subject of the assassination of the King of Italy.

HUMBERT'S FUNERAL FIXED FOR AUG. 9.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6.—The State Department is informed that the funeral of King Humbert will take place in Rome Aug. 9.

LETTER-CARRIER WOULD BE MAYOR.

William Boerum has his eye on Mayor Van Wyck's job. In event of Brother Bob's removal for his connection with the Ice Trust, Mr. Boerum is willing to not aside all other things and take up the wearing responsibilities of the office.

He promises that he will keep things moving and give an administration so clean that it will make Van Wyck's look like an overworked coadjutor.

And even if Van Wyck is not removed, Mr. Boerum will run for the job in the next election. Seeing that he is a postman and has been for the last fourteen years, Mr. Boerum should make a good run. Or it may be that he will "win in indignation and deep concern at the tidings of the assassination of my illustrious ally, the King of Italy. I have not failed to convey to his successor your sentiments of abhorrence of such a crime and your sympathy with the royal family, Government and people of that country."
